

DURANGO ARTS CENTER
NEED-BASED SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION
DAC YOUTH THEATRE
AFTER SCHOOL ART

The Durango Arts Center provides need-based scholarships to students thanks to generous individuals and support from but not limited to the Boone Fund, Durango Friends of the Arts, Durango Silverton Narrow Gage Railroad, Zia Taqueria, and the Martin Family Fund.

In assessing scholarship requests, we ask that your child submit either a written paragraph or drawing that describes why they are interested in attending this educational DAC Program. Honoring confidentiality, children's names will be withheld – this information will be shared with donors to further illustrate the impact of their funding.

Upon receipt of your complete application, and following the committee review, you will be notified regarding the level of scholarship support DAC can provide to assist with your child's experience in our programs.

Complete this form including all questions and attach your child's image/ writing sample and return to Deena Carney, Visual Art Education Director or Emily Simpson Grandt, DAC Youth Theatre Director 802 E. 2nd Avenue, Durango, CO 81301, Deena@durangoarts.org or Emily@durangoarts.org
