Gallery Shop

The Gallery Shop is now open under the management of Mary Puller, whose background includes working with the Mingei International Folk Art Museum. She has also coordinated traveling art exhibits, served as a corporate art consultant and, most recently, was the buyer for the United Nations UNICEF store in Tuscon, Arizona.

The shop will continue to feature the work of selected local and regional artists, as well as exhibit folk art and fine craft, clothing and jewelry from artisans world wide. DAC members will receive a 10% discount on all purchases. The shop will be open Friday and Saturday evenings during the summer theater season.

Art at the Airport

On display through the end of July in the departure lounge at the Durango-La Plata Airport are plein air paintings by DAC artists Sharon Abshagen, Jan Goldman, Jane Mercer and Lori Walters. Thanks to airport manager Ron Dent and to Jessica Unruh of Fast Signs for their support of the Durango Arts Center and for this special opportunity for its artists to show their work.

Durango's Kentucky Derby

Thanks to everyone who attended Durango's Kentucky Derby at the Rochester Hotel on May 7 and to Diane Wildfang and Kirk Komick for hosting the event, which featured an array of tasty hors d'oeuvres, mint juleps, Southern hospitality and a ladies' hat contest. Racing fans placed their bets and cheered for their favorite during the televised "Run for the Roses." Appreciation goes to the sponsors and donors: Alpine Bank, BP Corporation, Eureka! Dan's, Julep, Lightning Communications, Montanya Rum, Nectar of Durango, Republic National Distributing Company, Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory, Ska Brewing Company, Soaring Tree Top Adventures, Southern Ute Growth Fund, Stranahan's Whiskey and Sutcliffe Vineyards. A very special thank-you is in order to artist Shawndell Oliver for donating "Out of the Gate," an oil painting which was auctioned as part of this fundraiser for the Durango Arts Center.
