The images you submit do not necessarily have to be of work that you intend to display; however, it should be representative of your current body of work.

Due to limited wall space, DAC reserves the right to select and hang the work to its best advantage, which includes limiting the number of works to be displayed. Please consider the dimensions of the hanging area before you bring in your work. DAC also reserves the right to reject work it considers to be inappropriate.

The two walls in the northeast corner of the shop have been designated the Artists' Corner. One wall is 48 inches high by 74 inches wide and the other is 48 inches high by 38 inches wide.

Exhibiting work will be on a first-come, first-served basis. You will be notified by phone or e-mail as to which month you have been chosen to exhibit. In the event of loss or damage, coverage will be based upon the insurance value assigned by the artist upon submission of work, less DAC's 40% commission. Extremely fragile work will not be exhibited. Submission of work constitutes an automatic waiver of any claim against the Durango Arts Center, or any representative thereof, over and above insurance valuation.
