

Did you know...

Last year:

- Volunteers donated more than 5,000 hours to the DAC.
- The DAC had over 4,500 gallery visitors
- Our Gallery Shop had over 3,500 visitors
- The Barbara Conrad Gallery hosted 12 exhibits
- 42 artists were featured in the Arts Library
- The work of 10 artists hung in our Local Expressions Gallery
- A total of 402 artists' work was displayed
- More than 150 children, from elementary through high school, participated in about a dozen performing arts groups and opportunities at DAC. More than 3,200 tickets were sold to see these kids perform.
- Last year, 611 students in grades Kindergarten through 5th grade participated in our arts classes at their school. Over 300 arts classes were offered with our DAC teaching artists.
- Creativity Festivity, a yearly celebration of kids and the arts in collaboration with the 9R school district, happens each April here at the DAC gallery, theater, teaching studios and in the schools. Student art work and performances are featured and opportunities to see live theater, work with visiting artists, participate in a poetry slam or a writing contest are all part of this month-long event.
- Up to 15% of students were aided by scholarships
